

Dear Honorable Judge Kathy A. Surratt:
I wish to direct your attention to the case of the coal miners.

I have more than 42 years experience in under ground mines.
As, you know I have a lot of medical problems. My wife and I are 78 yrs. old.

It is not feasible for me to travel to St. Louis. Our medical condition requires us to take a lot of medicine to keep living. We are restricted on traveling.

I am asking you to carefully weigh the condition of us miners, and the life we have lived working in Coal Mines

We will suffer greatly if we loose our pension and Health care.

Thank You,
James a. Grimmer
