Honorable Kathy A. Surratt - States:

I am writing you to let you know that I worked in coal mines over forty-five years. I worked for over fifteen years in underground mines and over thirty years at strip mines.

I worked for Peabody Coal Company for over twenty-five years of my last mining, from which I retired. I was to receive health benefits and a pension for life from Peabody Coal Company. However, that all was changed to Patriot Coal Company, a coal company I never worked for.

Now Patriot Coal Company has filed for bankruptcy. I know this is a dirty deal that Peabody Coal Company has thought up to get out of their responsibility. I hope you have power enough to make a decision that will let the poor coal miners keep their benefits, and show Peabody Coal Company and Patriot Coal Company, and all of the world, that they are not going to use you to pull off their dirty deal on poor retired miners and their families.

God Bless you.

Sincerely,
Vernie Mosley
